Funny.-It is related of Thomas F. Marshall that a judge having once fined him thirty dollars for contempt | Southern States. of court, he rose and asked the Judge North Carolina, to loan him the money: as he hadn't it, and there was no friend present to whom he could so well apply as to his Florida, honor. This was a stumper. The Mississippi, Judge looked at Tom and at the clerk and finally said; "Clerk, remit Mr. Marshall's fine; the State is better able to lose thirty dollars than I am."

Fillmore in California.-The fol lowing, says the California American, is a list of the newspapers in this State that support the American nominees, and are doing service for Fillmore and Donelson:

Daily California American,

- Stockton Argus,
- Marysville Herald, Sonora Herald,

- Marysville Herald,
- Sonora Herald,
- Placer Press, Placerville American,
- Coloma Argus,
- Shasta Republican,
- Liskiyou Chronicle, Mountain Messenger,
- Nevada Journal,
- San Jose Tribune, San Diego Herald.

candidates. We will add, says the San Jose Tribune, that those supporting the Black Republican Ticket are,

The San Jose Telegraph; Making altogether, one weekly paper.

A Big Osg. - The Louisville Democrat has a private telegraphic dispatch from Dayton, Ohio, which says that there were one hundred and sixty thousand persons at the Buchanan mass meeting in that city on the 17th ult., and that eighty thousand marched in the procession! "One hundred and sixty thousand" is about thirty thousand of Ohio at the last Governor's elec- dark in the future. Why don't Frank author of that "special dispatch,"

The telegraphic reporter for the as-

"It is variously estimated that there were from 40,000 to 75,000 persons present. The procession numbered 3.407 men, women and children. The number of vehicles in the procession was 213. They occupied fifty minutes ther Cass, Douglas or Breckenridge were present, as advertised, which caused much disappointment, and in consequence there were no speakers of any note on hand."

THEY MET BUT ONCE.

BY M. LOUISA CHITWOOD.

They met but once as clouds of light, On some blue lake of sky, Touch their soft cheeks some summer's night. And link their misty hands of white, Then separate for aye.

and are ready to do all kinds of work, such as They met but once, as rain drops meet In summer's radiant bow; It was enough to prove how fleet, How like a rose-life, brief and sweet, Are perfect hours below.

> Into her placid soul he gazed, He knew 'twas pure and fair, And when to his her orbs were raiseff, Her heart was not abashed, amuzed, To see her image there.

No earth-love caused a single thrill To pulsate in his breast, And star-like, suddenly and still, Like sunset on some lake-like rill, Her thoughts went down to rest.

Across the sky above, Each for the other ever kept A holy thought that never slept' Illuminate with love.

They parted when the moon's fair rim Was resting on the sea; How could heart fail, hope grow dim, She was in the same world with him, Wherever he might te.

And she had gathered strength and light, To meet the world's loud strife, The soul within was ever bright, Thus could she brave the darkest night That settled over life.

They parted. Journeying side by side Were boon for earth too sweet; Beyond the grave these souls so tried, By angels wedded, purified Again, again shall meet!

The "original Buchanan men" here about, are becoming desperate in the ex treme at the foreshadowing of a signal dis comfiture which they cannot fail to per ceive, and are making vehement threats to-terrify the Germans and Irish. They tell the foreigners that if they dare to desert the democracy in this fight, they will hereafter be abandoned to the mercy of the Know Nothings-that if the defection of the Germans causes the triumph o the Republicans, this time, the democracy will go in with the Know Nothings and hunt them out of the country, while if an Irishman bolts he will never more be permitted to snap up a single grain of official corn. The game of brag has failed, and bullying is the order of the day .- Cin, Commercial.

What might Happen .- It Buchan were elected President, which, luckily, is not now in the realms of probability, it is computed that upwards of two hundred thousand mechanics would emigrate from the United States, in the hope of getting elsewhere eleven cents per day.

We are sorry for Frank Pierce, indeed we are! See how shabbily the people of his former residence-Concord N. H .behaved on the 22 instant! And Gener al Low, too! was hissed, when he compared Frank Pierce to Old Hickory!more than the entire Democratic vote He will probably lie "low" and keep tion! Can't somebody hunt up Mun- conclude and go up "Salt River," with chausen's old hat and send it to the Forney and "Old Buck," next spring? Fine symmer climate up there,
